Shea-Brannan

On Thursday night, at the Opera House, Prof. Matthias Brannan the Carson champion, and John Shea, of San Francisco, will engage in a friendly contest to a finish for $250 a side.

The contestants wanted to put the fight off a month, but as some of the Legislators were anxious to have it come off before adjournment it was decided to have the contest during the session.

Shea is a first class man; a heavy hitter and very scientific. Brannan is well known here as a terrific hitter and a stayer from the word lime. The contest promises to be an interesting one from the start, and the Opera House will be crowded. Both men are in the pink of condition, and are very evenly matched.

Tickets will be out to-day and reserved seats are now on sale at Hawkin's cigar store.

Admission $1.00. The following are the articles of agreement:

RENO, NEV., March 6, 1891.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to fight to a finish for the sum of two hundred and fifty ($250) dollars a side. The fight to take place on Thursday evening, March 12, 1891, at the Opera House, Carson City Nevada, Marquis of Queensbury rules to govern.

We do this day deposit $250 in Dan O'Keefe's safe as stake money, the winner to take two-thirds and the loser one-third of the accruing gate money.

In witness whereof, we hereunto subscribe our respective signatures this, the 7th day of March, 1891.

JACK SHEA,

M. W. BRANNAN.

Dr. Shlesinger, the oldest medium in the world, is at the Arlington, and will communicate with the departed friends of anyone who so desire. He is pronounced by the press of the country as the most wonderful man of the age. The fact that he accepts no fee unless satisfaction is given is a sufficient guarantee of the fact that he is neither a fraud nor a humbug. He also guarantees to cure the tobacco habit, and cures diseases by magnetic treatment. He will be here but a few days.

The Camp-Fire

Custer Post, G. A. R., will light their annual campfire this evening at Armory Hall, and wind up with a dance. Zimmer & Meder's orchestra has been engaged for the occasion. During the evening Department Commander, A. J. Buckles will make a few appropriate remarks. A regular old time army spread will be served, consisting of sandwiches, coffee and beans enough to satisfy everybody, and no doubt all will enjoy the blow out.
